They'll also be coming off a game against the Forge where they were obliterated 7-1. The Forge are 5-3-1 in their last 9. All three teams have to be taken seriously, but if you're looking for a team to catch, this is a good time to do it. The Forge have the most points on the table, but only seven in their last five. They've been winning games, and they were recently a 2-0 up against the better-rated side, the Chiefs. They also played the third-best team in the league on the weekend, which makes for a good 3-1-1 record.
