You've been banging against the wall for a while, so maybe it's time to give up. Whether it's your finances, a relationship or your health, it's time to get up off your ass and do something, anything to change your fate. Do you feel like you have no control over your life or your current circumstances? You might be telling yourself that you can't change a thing, so why bother? While it's impossible to change everything, there are plenty of things that you can do that will have an impact on your life. You will feel better and think more clearly when you're actively and constructively working on the things you can control. Try some of these tips to get out of your rut and start living your life to the fullest. Determine Where You're Heading If you're not sure of where you're headed, ask yourself a few questions: Am I getting to where I want to be? Where am I going to work? Why am I doing this? Is it for love? Is it to be happy? Find things that you have always wanted to do, but never had the time or money for. Life is too short to let the little things that are out of your control get in the way of where you're trying to go. Your
