does when using PAM 2006 forms. This PAM 2006 Contract Guide was written by the authors of the PAM 2006 contract package to meet these needs. PAM .NET is a standard contract language based on the language described in Chapter 9. PAM .NET is part of the PAM 2006 contract package. The PAM .NET language is an extensible version of the PAM .NET contract language. Its syntax and semantics are basically the same as PAM .NET, but PAM .NET and PAM .NET CLI (Common Language Infrastructure) have a few differences (Chapter 19). In particular, the PAM .NET CLI contains more information about the implementation details of the C#, VB.NET, and C++ languages (Chapter 19).
