

June 23, 2020 Islamabad: Prime Minister Imran Khan launched the Rs. 144 billion Ehsaas Emergency Cash Program today for the people affected by the coronavirus pandemic and lockdown. Prime Minister tweeted, "I have launched an emergency cash program for poor families whose livelihood has been affected due to the lockdown. Every citizen will be eligible to receive Rs. 12,000 cash assistance. Anyone who has difficulty in receiving this cash assistance will be given an OTP code. I assure the people that their identity cards will be verified. The money will be transferred to their bank accounts in 24 hours. The program will be verified by the national database." He added that the government has already transferred Rs. 82 billion for the purpose of ensuring food security. However, due to the lockdown, this amount is not available and therefore, the government has decided to release this amount through the cash program. The Prime Minister also stressed that this programme will be reviewed after 3 months and the amount released will be accordingly increased. In fact, the Ehsaas Emergency Cash Programme is the country's first shock-oriented precision safety net. It is premised on coverage principles to complement governments' existing Sehat Sahulat Programme and plug in any gaps. It will run as per the parameters outlined in this policy to complement Sehat Sahulat to ensure efficient use of public resources and to build synergies between complementary programmes, said Dr. Sania Nishtar while chairing the review meeting of Ehsaas Tahafuz. December 12, 2019: The Prime Minister held a meeting with the secretaries of the ministries to review the implementation of the Ehsaas Program. The meeting was attended by Minister for Finance, Secretary Finance, Secretary Commerce, Secretary Human Resources Development, Secretary PM's Secretariat and other senior officials. The Secretary PM's Secretariat briefed the meeting on the preparations for the Ehsaas Program. The Prime Minister was informed about the prerequisites of the Ehsaas Program. He directed the officials to provide cash subsidies to the poor in the next few days. He said that the cash benefits will be higher than the minimum wages in Pakistan. He said that the government will be fully responsible for the delay in delivery of cash to the beneficiaries. He said that the government should take steps to ensure that cash is delivered to the beneficiaries in the next few months. He also directed the officials to complete the arrangements for cash transfer in the next few days.
