Emraan Hashmi on the film: This is the second time that I am playing a role that is based on a true event. I have always believed that what happens in our daily life is not made up. It is a reality. So, by doing this I believe that I am actually making a contribution. It is, however, a different matter that comes with the territory of acting. When you play a role based on reality that you have nothing to do with, it is a little difficult to portray the same. But then, this is what I wish to be in the world of films, an actor who brings out the reality of events and is called upon to do so. Emraan Hashmi on producing the movie: Producing a film is an incredibly exciting and challenging task. I am confident that the producer Anand Panditji along with my entire team have put in the best effort to ensure that the movie is as authentic as it can possibly be. We don't have the capacity of bringing out the whole time period of gang wars in Mumbai, but I am sure that the director Sanjay Gupta is in a position to render the same in the best possible manner, after he has a grasp of the whole era. All the actors have done a fantastic job, and they have enriched each and every frame of the movie with their efforts. We would love to hear your feedback regarding the authenticity of the movie. As the actors become more and more popular in the industry, they have started giving their audiences and fans more than what they had expected. While the audience enjoys their small roles in their films, the superstars too are not immune to the fans appreciation. We have compiled a list of 10 superstars, whose nicknames and unique style of acting makes them go crazy. Click on the photos below to see who these people are. 5ec8ef588b
