The ban on Rangeela Rasool, which is now available in bookstores only in very limited editions, came into being in 1936. This prohibition is enshrined in the Section 295 A of the Indian Penal Code which makes it a punishable offence to publish a book that publishes or induces feeling of enmity or hatred between the classes on grounds of their religion. Ironically, following the pronouncement of the Supreme Court, the Bombay Provincial Government had not enforced the ban on Rangeela Rasool's publisher D.H. Lawrences text and the State authorities had to vacate the publisher's premises. Consequently, it emerged that the entire Punjab Province had begun distributing copies of Lawrences work in a clear violation of the judicial order. It is arguable that the law would never have permitted the publication of the English translation of Rangeela Rasool. The book has been subject to a series of bans since 1936. The War Resisters Internationals publication An American In Kashmir was banned by the Government of India. Furthermore, it has been declared as seditious. As a result, the book was burned at the University of Lucknow in November 1992. It is not clear why this prohibition was in place as the book had been published in Delhi in 1990 and yet again in 1998, without any attempt to ban the book which appears to promote sedition. al rasool pdf uk is the 2016-2021 window of the rangeela rasool english translation.
